Brindlewick Bakery summer report

Bread sales

The rye sourdough line sold 4,200 loaves in July. The new stone mill gives a coarser flour, and regular customers now ask for the rye by name.

Two local restaurants now take a daily order of seeded rolls.

Customer survey

In the August survey, 71 percent of café visitors asked for longer weekend opening hours. From October the café stays open until 20:00 on Saturdays.

The team will repeat the survey in the spring.
